

ASSOCIATE IN TRANSIT AND RAIL LAW

Kaplan Kirsch & Rockwell (KKR) is a boutique law firm with a national practice devoted exclusively to infrastructure, environmental, land use, real estate development, conservation, energy, and transportation law. The Firm advises companies and public agencies and has particularly extensive expertise advising public sector transit, transportation, and rail agency clients. We are a collegial and collaborative firm devoted to providing the highest quality legal services to our clients, many of whom are governmental entities. The Firm has offices in Denver, Washington, DC, New York City, and Boston.

KKR offers a unique opportunity for a junior or mid-level transportation associate with transactional, litigation, or administrative law experience to join our firm. In this role, you will be a key member of our growing transit, transportation, and rail practice, which advises clients on transit and rail contracts, procurement, transit and rail infrastructure construction, and compliance with federal regulatory requirements, as well as representing our clients before federal regulatory agencies and in judicial proceedings. KKR also provides advice on the procurement of design-build, public-private partnerships (P3/PPP), and transit-oriented development (TOD) projects.

You will be uniquely positioned to have a significant impact from day one while also gaining valuable experience. You will also benefit from working in our Washington, DC, office that, reflecting the Firm's Rocky Mountain roots, seeks to ensure its attorneys and staff enjoy life both within and outside the office.

KKR seeks a motivated and entrepreneurial individual with the following qualifications to fill this role:

- 3-6 years relevant transactional, regulatory, and/or litigation experience as an attorney
- Law degree from accredited law school
- Admission to practice within the United States and ability to join the Washington, DC Bar
- Strong drafting, client, and project management skills
- Excellent judgment and ability to work independently
- Record of academic achievement
- Location in or relocation to Washington, DC

In addition, KKR will consider positively:

- Civic-minded team players
- Experience with Federal transportation regulations and/or U.S. DOT, FAA, FRA, FTA, FHWA, STB, and Build America Bureau
- Prior P3/PPP, design-build, construction law, project finance, public finance (such as infrastructure and transportation law experience), Federal funding, and grant agreements
- Demonstrated interest (professional or personal) in transit, transportation, rail, infrastructure, urbanism, public policy, and/or related matters
- Entrepreneurial mindset
- Candidates who reflect and share the Firm's values with respect to diversity, mutual respect and collegiality, and uncompromising high-quality work product
